To Whom It May Concern:

Dante Ramirez was a close friend of mine, both on and off the football field. We have stayed in touch via social media since our gridiron days back in 2003 - 2006 and I can attest to his dedication and passion for the game and his integrity as an individual.

I was always impressed with his abilities on the field and his camaraderie with the team. He understood the concepts and fundamentals of the game better than most others. Dante had a great mind for predicting the opposing team's next move both on offense and defense, where he played as a running back and a defensive back, respectively.

Dante is strong minded and has a big heart that he always laid on the line for the team. He is hard worker and was an excellent athlete.

With his abilities and talents, I firmly believe he can fill any coaching position for kids of any age, especially as a defensive coordinator, and I highly recommend him for the position.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate contact me.

Thank you,
